

<sup>1</sup> One day Jesus was praying in a certain place. When he finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples." <sup>2</sup> He said to them, "When you pray, say: "Our Father in Heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, May your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. <sup>3</sup> Give us each day our daily bread. <sup>4</sup> Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.'" ...

Luke 11:1 - 10

<sup>5</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Suppose you have a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; <sup>6</sup> a friend of mine on a journey has come to me, and I have no food to offer him.' <sup>7</sup> And suppose the one inside answers, 'Don't bother me. The door is already locked, and my children and I are in bed. I can't get up and give you anything.' ...

Luke 11:1 - 10

<sup>8</sup> I tell you, even though he will not get up and give you the bread because of friendship, yet because of your shameless audacity he will surely get up and give you as much as you need. <sup>9</sup> "So I say to you: Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. <sup>10</sup> For everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

“Mediocrity is a hard word to apply to myself...I have nothing to be proud of yet myself. I am stupid, quite as stupid as the people I ridicule [in my stories].”

A statue of a figure, possibly a saint or religious figure, illuminated by a red light against a dark background. The figure is standing on a pedestal and appears to be holding a staff or a similar object. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the contours of the statue.

“Dear God, I cannot love Thee the way I want to. You are the slim crescent of a moon that I see and my self is the earth’s shadow that keeps me from seeing all the moon...I do not know you God, because I am in the way.”

"I have noticed that the humblest, and at the same time most balanced and [liberated] minds, praised most, while the cranks, misfits, and malcontents praised least. The good critics found something to praise in many imperfect works; the bad ones continually narrowed the list of books we might be allowed to read. The healthy man, even if luxuriously brought up...could praise a modest meal; the snob found fault with all. Except where intolerably adverse circumstances interfere, praise almost seems to be inner health made audible."

C.S. Lewis

Give us each day our daily bread.

Luke 11 : 3

A man in a dark suit and white shirt is seated at a desk, his hands clasped together. He has a thoughtful expression, looking slightly to the right. The background is dark and out of focus, suggesting an office or study environment. The lighting is soft, highlighting the contours of his face and hands.

Then Jesus said to them, "Suppose you have a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; a friend of mine on a journey has come to me, and I have no food to offer him.' And suppose the one inside answers, 'Don't bother me. The door is already locked, and my children and I are in bed. I can't get up and give you anything.'
