

¹ Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from any tree in the garden'?" ² The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden, ³ but God did say, 'You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die.'" ...

Genesis 3 : 1-19

⁴ "You will not certainly die," the serpent said to the woman. ⁵ "For God knows that when you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." ⁶ When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. ...

Genesis 3 : 1-19

⁷ Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

⁸ Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the Lord God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the Lord God among the trees of the garden. ⁹ But the Lord God called to the man, "Where are you?" ...

Genesis 3 : 1-19

¹⁰ He answered, "I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid." ¹¹ And he said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?"

¹² The man said, "The woman you put here with me—she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it."

¹³ Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" ...

Genesis 3 : 1-19

The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."

¹⁴ So the Lord God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, ¹⁵ I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel."

¹⁶ To the woman he said, "I will make your pains in childbearing very severe; with painful labor you will give birth to children. ...

Genesis 3 : 1-19

Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you." ¹⁷ To Adam he said, "Because you listened to your wife and ate fruit from the tree about which I commanded you, 'You must not eat from it,' "Cursed is the ground because of you; through painful toil you will eat food from it all the days of your life. ¹⁸ It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the field. ...

Genesis 3 : 1-19

Genesis 3 : 1-19

"a revival of the conscious sense of guilt and repentance.
In short, I call for a revival of sin. ...

Dr. Karl Menninger | Whatever Happened to Sin?

What would be the good of that?" you ask. "Why do we need more breast beaters? Why not a no-fault theology with no one to blame?" The assumption that there is sin implies both the possibility and an obligation for intervention. We want to help others, and ourselves and hence sin is the only hopeful view. ...

Dr. Karl Menninger | Whatever Happened to Sin?

When evil appears around us and no one is responsible, no one is guilty, no moral questions are asked, then there is, in short, nothing to do- so we sink to despairing hopelessness. Therefore, the consequence of my proposal would not be more depression, but less."

"The world since Genesis 3...is generally a tough place in which to make a living. Thorns and thistles are everywhere, resisting and retarding our efforts.
