

¹ Why do you boast of evil, O mighty man?
The steadfast love of God endures all the day.

² Your tongue plots destruction,
like a sharp razor, you worker of deceit.

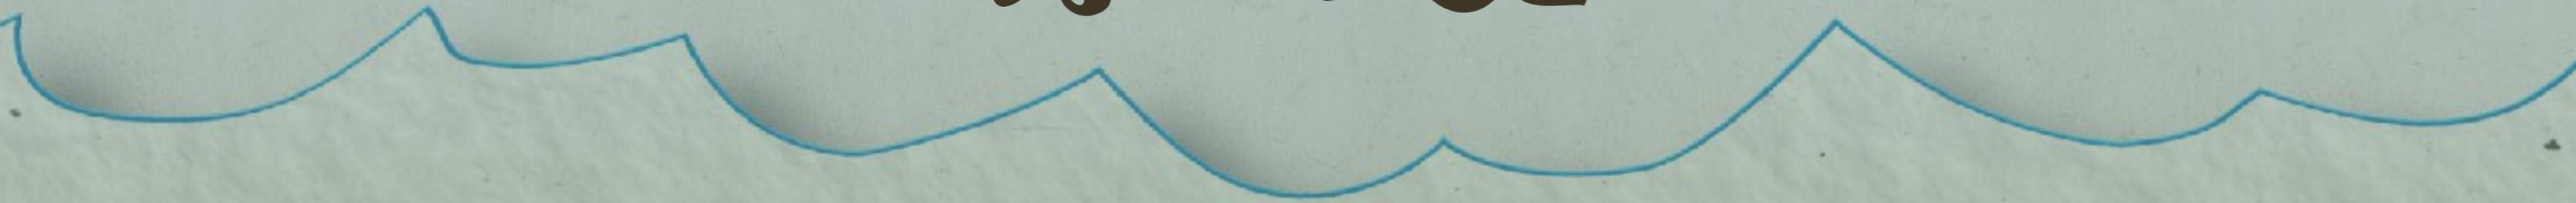

³ You love evil more than good,
and lying more than speaking what is right. Selah

⁴ You love all words that devour,
O deceitful tongue. . . .

Psalm 52

⁵ But God will break you down forever;
he will snatch and tear you from your tent;
he will uproot you from the land of the living. Selah ⁶ The righteous shall see and fear,
and shall laugh at him, saying,
⁷ "See the man who would not make God his refuge,
but trusted in the abundance of his riches
and sought refuge in his own destruction!" ...

Psalm 52

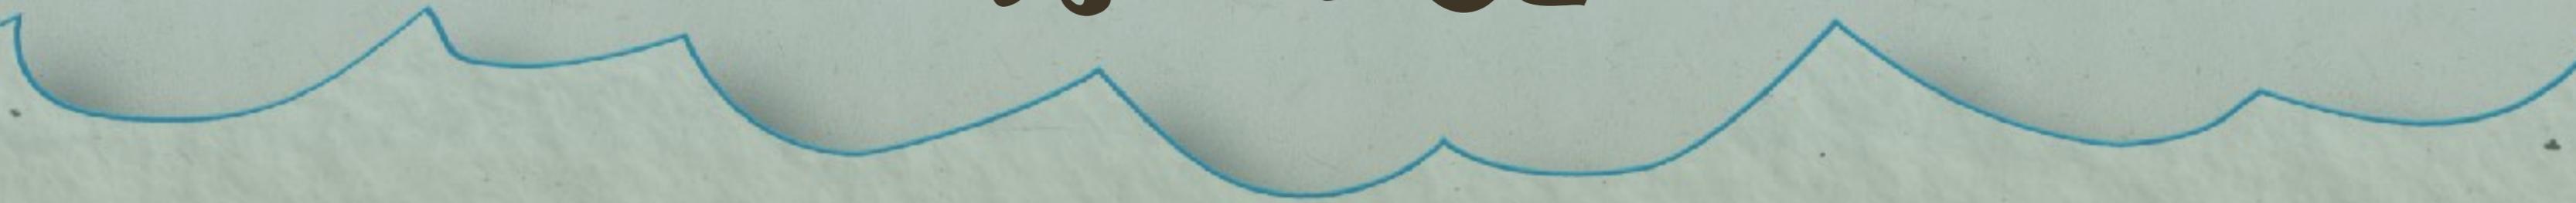

⁸ But I am like a green olive tree
in the house of God.

I trust in the steadfast love of God
forever and ever.

⁹ I will thank you forever,
because you have done it.

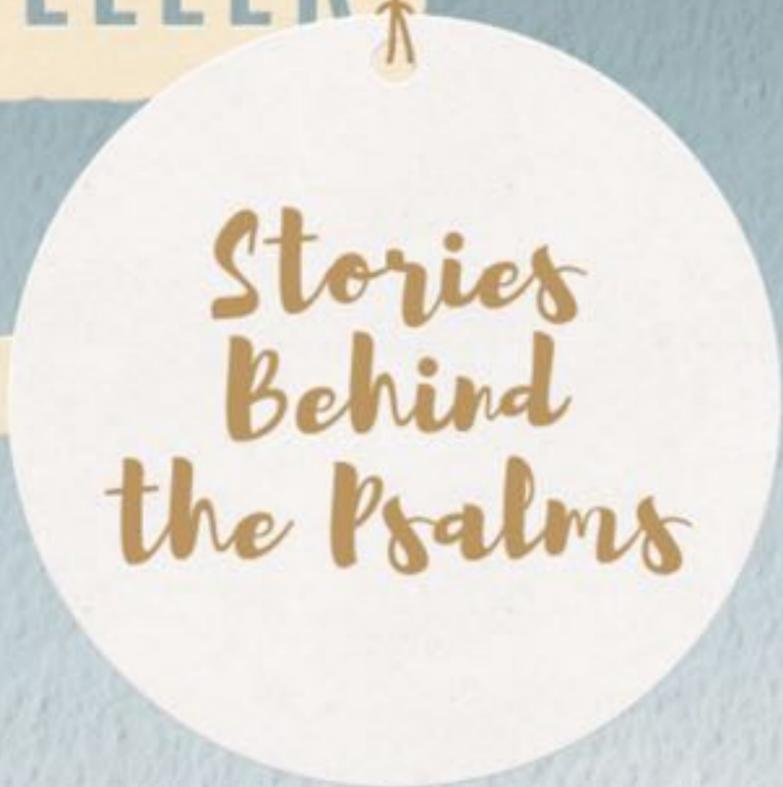

I will wait for your name, for it is good,
in the presence of the godly.

The image features a collage of vintage sheet music pages, primarily for the hymn "The Happy Pilgrim." The pages are layered and partially obscured by a large, light blue, cloud-like shape that dominates the left and center of the frame. The visible sheet music includes the title "THE HAPPY PILGRIM" and the lyrics: "1. I saw a happy pilgrim On Zion's shining road, Banishing all the cares of this world, And leaving on his head, His crown of glory." The music is written in a traditional hymn style with a treble and bass clef. Other visible titles include "THE PILGRIM" and "THE HAPPY PILGRIM." The overall aesthetic is that of an old, weathered music book.

"He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies."
